

COPPER IN ARCHITECTURE

AWARDS 14 2009

Rules and Entry Form

Promoting excellence in design with copper by architects and copper craftsmanship by contractors

Sponsored by:
International Copper Association, Ltd
and European Copper Institute

Promoted by:
Copper in Architecture

ABOUT THE AWARDS

The Copper in Architecture Awards promote and reward excellence in design by architects and craftsmanship by contractors.

To be eligible, all entries must incorporate cladding, roofing or other architectural elements of copper or copper alloys, such as bronze and brass. Awards will be presented at a ceremony in London in September 2009. All winning and commended projects will feature in extensive press coverage, including a special supplement in The Architectural Review. A selection of entries will be displayed at the presentation.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN AWARD

For recently completed buildings across Europe, incorporating copper or copper alloy cladding, roofing or other architectural elements.

Winner's Prize: a bronze replica Cycladic sculpture.

All entries will be judged from submitted A1 boards with written supporting material by a panel to include:

Paul Finch, Editor of The Architectural Review (Chairman of judges panel)

together with a selection from the standing panel of architects:

Laurence Bain, Bain and Bevington Architects

Craig Casci, Hamiltons

Peter Clegg, FCB Studios

Einar Jarmund, Jarmund Vignsnaes as Artitekteer

Kari Jarvinen, Kari Jarvinen Ja Merja Nieminen Arkkitehdit

Pierre Long, de Blacam & Meagher Architects

Ken Shuttleworth, Make Architects

Simone Solinas, Solinas Verd Arquitectos

Gordon Talbot, Ian Ritchie Architects

Keith Williams, Keith Williams Architects

OTHER AWARDS

Innovation Award

A discretionary award for projects demonstrating innovation in an area of particular relevance to current design issues. All entries, in all categories, will automatically be reviewed for this award by the judges' panel.

Winner's Prize: a bronze sculpture.

John Smith Award for Craftsmanship

For recently completed buildings in the UK. All entries for the Architectural Design Award will be assessed by copper experts to determine those projects which demonstrate exceptional workmanship by the specialist copper contractor.

Winner's Prize: John Smith Award for Craftsmanship plaque.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR ENTRY

Entries for the Architectural Design Award should be mounted on one or two A1 boards incorporating photographs and drawings of the project, highlighting the use of copper. They should include, or be accompanied by, a project description of approximately 250 words and the completed entry form identifying the name of the project and the entrant. Digital versions of all images (minimum 300dpi on CD) must accompany each entry, together with a Word document of the project description.

Projects should be completed between January 2007 and June 2009 to be eligible for entry. Entrants may submit more than one entry. Photocopies of the entry form will be accepted. Entries and supporting materials will be retained by Copper in Architecture. The judges' decision will be final and no correspondence will be allowed.

Completed entry forms, A1 boards and CDs should be sent to Copper in Architecture to arrive no later than 31st May 2009.

Information regarding use of images

All images must be free of copyright and be available for unrestricted use or publication by Copper in Architecture and the European Copper in Architecture Campaign (ECAC) without payment of royalties. Copper in Architecture and ECAC reserve the right to use any photographs or images supplied in any promotional or technical materials, including publications and websites.

Websites

All entries will be displayed in the 'Awards' section of the www.copperconcept.org website. Each entry will consist of the project description, together with 3 images that will be selected from those submitted on the entry CD.

Copper Forum

Selected entries will be featured in Copper Forum, the magazine of the European Copper in Architecture Campaign.

ENTRY FORM

Completed entry forms and entry materials should be submitted by 31st May 2009 to Copper in Architecture, address below.

YOUR DETAILS

Name: .....

Company: .....

Address: .....

.....

Country ..... Postcode: .....

Telephone No: ..... E-Mail: .....

PROJECT DETAILS

Project title: .....

Location of project: .....

Country .....

Architect: .....

Specialist Copper Contractor: .....

Main Contractor: .....

Owner: .....

I confirm that all images supplied are free of copyright and are available for unrestricted use or publication by Copper in Architecture and European Copper in Architecture Campaign without payment of royalties.

Signature: .....

Date: .....

Copper in Architecture is part of the European Copper in Architecture Campaign, promoted by Copper Development Association and participating copper fabricators.

Copper in Architecture

5 Grovelands Business Centre, Boundary Way, Hemel Hempstead, HP2 7TE, UK

Tel: 0044 (0)1442 275705 Fax: 0044 (0)1442 275716

E-mail: mail@copperdev.co.uk

Websites: www.copperinfo.co.uk/arch and www.copperconcept.org